Description

The 2¼" Gallery in Polished Brass is utilised for many applications. When accompanied by a batten cover, this will allow most of our glassware to be converted to a batten fix. Alternatively, a gallery can be connected to a rod suspension, cord suspension, and many other combinations. Also, the screws that enter the gallery around it's perimeter, are used to hold the glassware in place. This gallery, is constructed from solid brass.

The 2¼" Gallery in Polished Brass has the following product features:
